

4 KEYS TO CONTRIBUTION

RENÉE GIARRUSSO

CONTRIBUTING TO YOURSELF

We need to serve ourselves to better contribute to and serve others. The saying 'you can't pour from an empty cup' applies to all of us. It's like fuelling a car - if we optimise self-contribution, the car will go further.

CONTRIBUTING TO YOUR HOME TEAM

Contributing to our family and acknowledging their contributions to us is imperative for a happy, loving home environment where family life can flourish.

CONTRIBUTING TO YOUR WORK TEAM

Contributing to the workplace is not just clocking in and out - 80% of your success is actually showing up and wanting to contribute. We can contribute by tapping into shared accountability with peers, the customer, and the organisation. You'll feel more satisfaction knowing you made a difference without expecting anything in return.

CONTRIBUTING TO COMMUNITY

Community involvement provides a sense of belonging and social connectedness. Any effort to benefit the community is worthwhile, no matter how small. Communities can exist or be created from a shared location, hobbies, lived experiences and backgrounds, or a common cause.
